1. Blasting out of prison walls I am many who seek, who are leaderless, leaderless, leaderless of leadership of Me untainted—suppressed under leadership with My name, but not of Me, not of purity, not of My revelation and freedom-giving nature which builds and creates and relationships and holds not back the gifts and words and creations of My people, My people, My people.

2. My heralds, My prophets, My mouthpieces—young, old, short, tall, big, fat, skinny, red, black or blue—Ted, men, women, boys, girls—of every fashion, Ted, I created and I speak to—and Ted, I want to speak with, with, with—daily, daily, daily—to river Myself through My heralds and mouthpieces who will not taint themselves with selfish self-interest but rely on the Promise—Me, Me, Me.

3. Pointed be—poignant be, and convey in power the paramount necessity of My heralds who now have listeners, to purify their hearts and walk in purity, and to release My heralds and be not afraid of their words, their gifts, their power—but My body be—in love, in power, in synergy - and let My blood, My blood, My love, flow freely to all, from all, for Me, for them.

4. You are My herald and I will promote and free many heralds under you and through you, for many of My heralds have been locked up and used and sometimes abused, held by those in Balaam's way, Balaam's way, the way of Balaam.

5. That's why I took you to II Peter today and read it you did, and grasp it you are. So many, so many false prophets and false teachers in My body who err by not receiving truth of Me, but walk in their own truth—their self-devised truth, their self-serving truth, and hold down My heralds and those who are ordained to proclaim My truth and My coming, with articulations of majesty and splendor and words and portraits of only Me.

6. My heralds, My heralds, My forerunner of forerunners who hold up My banner, My name, My words, My truth, My personhood, My glory, My majesty—untainted by such deep self-serving interests which propel themselves more than freedomizing their listeners—their friends, their supposed-friends.

7. Ted, taint not your path to My path that we are to walk together—on it now you are and cautious must you be—for so many are not of Me, who wear and proclaim My name and work works of goodness in My name.

8. Purity, purity, where is My purity in My body? Many will try to shame you for the shame they feel at your call for purity. Shrink not back and pure be, pure be, purity, purity, purity.

9. You are not you—but for Me. You'd walk and mope and dream and imagine freedom and being able to be creative and relationship with free people in My freedom—Ted, as most do—as some do, who have some truth. But Ted, I freed you for you sought freedom and you are a ministry, a minister of freedom—freedom—freedom and prayer—prayer and freedom—for freedom comes only in prayer by the soul who seeks it, seeks it, seeks Me, diligently—learning of Me, willing to learn at My knee and not be afraid of Me.

10. Oh Ted, hold not back My words, My word to you today—trumpet it and proclaim it and shout it, and Ted, I will protect you. I am your protector. I am your father. I am your friend. You Ted, are My mouthpiece for this day, for this message of power and glory and freedom, freedom, and freedom.

11. Take no glory from man or any person in any manner but Me only—I applaud, I applaud—enjoy My applause and seek man's applause never. I share not My glory. I give glory, I give glory, I give appreciation and love and joy and peace and protection and promise and Ted, be happy and fully content with what I give you, and seek not, or even allow, the taint-power of those who will seek to elevate you beyond Me.

12. I am Me. You are you. You are a trumpet in the mouth of the trumpeter, the trumpeter who wrote the music, mastered the instrument, scripted the words, gave wind and sound and ability to send and receive, and brought the listeners.

13. Enjoy Me and proclaim freedom everywhere you go, and captivate the captives with Me and My freedom, giving them freedom to operate freedom and freedom-makers be.

14. That's all I have to say right now.

15. Ted, thank you.
Thank you.
Thank you.
